ITA ENG

Forme esili e delicate delineano la silhouette di un oggetto di uso quotidiano, semplificato all'essenziale. Forme e materiali esaltano la struttura di questa famiglia di sedute, nata dalla collaborazione tra Cantarutti e il designer australiano Adam Cornish: Maki è un incontro di linee fluide che creano una perfetta armonia, un invito a sedersi per lasciarsi avvolgere dalla sua sinuosa leggerezza. È disponibile con fusto in metallo e sedile e schienale in legno. Il sedile è interamente personalizzabile nei colori e nei rivestimenti, in pelle o tessuto. Sedia e poltroncina, impilabili, si inseriscono con naturalezza in qualsiasi contesto. Lo sgabello rifinisce una collezione pensata per arredare spazi pubblici e privati con un'estetica riconoscibile e funzionale.

Slender and delicate shapes outline the silhouette of an everyday object, simplified to the essentials. Shapes and materials enhance the structure of this seating family, born from the collaboration between Cantarutti and the Australian designer Adam Cornish: Maki is a meeting of fluid lines that create perfect harmony, an invitation to sit and let yourself be enveloped by its sinuous lightness. Available with metal frame and wooden seat and back. The seat is fully customisable in colours and upholstery, in leather or fabric. Stackable chair and armchair fit naturally into any context. The stool finishes a collection designed to furnish public and private spaces with a recognisable and functional aesthetic.
